Caledonia County Clears up Criminal Docket

ARE SEVERAL SENTENCES

After Respondents Had Been Sentenced, The Court Took Up a Hearing of Civil Matters.

St. Johnsbury, July 1.—The criminal work of the present term of Caledonia county court is thought to be completed. Four cases have been disposed of this week before Judge Alfred A. Hall.

Dedek Inanor, a Hungarian, who was arrested March 29 on a charge of burglary, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to hard labor in the state prison, Windsor, for not less than three nor more than five years. Inanor came to this country last September, worked in New York a short time, and came to Vermont in February in the hope of securing work. The evening of March 29 he broke into the railroad station at Danville and took some clothes and minor articles. He was tracked through the snow and arrested at West Danville.

Eugene Guy Shaw, who June 12, was arrested on the charge of malicious injury to property, done with intent to defraud, pleaded guilty to doing the act and was sentenced to not more than six nor less than four months in the house of correction, Rutland. Shaw, while intoxicated, entered the house of Josephine Brook of Barre, and with an iron mallet attempted to open a safe, being discovered in the act.

John Bannahan, who June 8 pleaded guilty to breaking into the store of M. C. Stenson, of this place, was sentenced to not more than thirty months nor less than two years in the house of correction. The respondent, who in 15 years old, was placed in the hands of the probation officer.

Arthur Ducloux, charged with breach of the peace, who has been causing trouble in school at Danville, the principal charges being kicking and striking the teacher, pleaded guilty and was ordered to be placed in the industrial school at Vergennes until he arrives at the age of 18 majority. This would be May 30, 1915. He was placed on probation.

At the conclusion of the state work the civil case of Michael Dalton vs the

A Simple Test Which Any Reader of this Paper May Try.

Do you know whether you are inclined to, or have kidney trouble? Have you ever tried the simple test of setting aside your urine in a bottle or vessel for twenty-four hours?

A sediment or settling in the urine indicates a diseased condition.

Science has today furnished proofs that all the purifying that your blood needs; in fact, all that can be done, must be done, by your kidneys.

They are the most important organs, because they filter and purify the blood.

The kidneys strain or filter out the impurities in the blood—that is their work. When your blood is impure, nothing can purify it but your kidneys.

To overcome these troubles take Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the world-famous kidney remedy. In taking Swamp-Root you afford natural help to Nature, for Swamp-Root is the most perfect healer and gentle aid to the kidneys that has yet been discovered.

If you mention our paper and write Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle, they will send it free by mail—it will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys.

ULTIMATUM TO RAILROADS

Freight Handlers Talk Strike in Chicago

GIVEN 24 HOURS TO SIGN

The Whole Matter Is Left With the Union's Officers—Bitter Attack on the Railroads by International President.

Chicago, July 1.—Railroads, entering Chicago were threatened with a strike by the freight handlers union last night unless within twenty-four hours the companies agreed to sign a year's agreement. A resolution to this effect was passed at a mass meeting attended by 2,000 members of the union, following a bitter attack on railroads by international president, P. J. Flannery. Without a dissenting voice the union passed the measure which ultimately may mean the tying up of the greater part of the freight business of the city. Should the railroads refuse the demand of the freight handlers and fail to sign the desired contract within the prescribed time, the union voted to allow the calling of the strike to rest in the hands of President Flannery and the executive board and to allow them to use whatever methods they believe best to win the fight.

SPANKED TO ORDER IN CHILDREN'S COURT.

Straps, Hair Brushes and a Nice Room All Handy for Worried Parents.

New York, July 1.—Justice Olmsted, tired of seeing the same bad boys before him day after day, established a spanking room in the apartments above the children's court at Eleventh street and Third avenue, and detailed Police Lieutenant Tobin Ward to see that the orders of the court are carried out by parents.

The first victims were George and Benjamin Granville of 328 East Fifty-second street, 9 and 10 years old, and declared incorrigible by their mother. "I've tried to do my best," said Mrs. Granville, "but it seems no use."

"How many children have you?" asked the justice.

"Ten," answered Mrs. Granville. "Well," said the court, "take these two upstairs and let me hear from you. You ought to be able to make a good job of it."

In about three minutes unearthly yells descended into the courtroom, and shortly after the youth Granvilles reappeared flushed and sobbing. The mother beamed on the court.

"Find everything handy!" asked the court, "straps, hair brushes and so on?" "Charles Coulo," said the court, addressing a slim youth of 14, who lives at 250 Henry street, "you are six feet tall and ought to know better than to play 'old cat' on the street. Are your parents here?"

"I am his brother," said a shorter and huskier youth of about 20. "I can give it to him good."

The justice nodded and the boy, his brother and the lieutenant started upstairs. In a moment there was an awful racket; chairs fell over, then came a yell or two and soon after the trio returned, looking a bit flustered.

"The prisoner started to lick his brother with his fists," said Lieut. Ward, "and I stopped him and gave him a hair brush."

"It's the only way to do," said the justice afterward. "Parents promise to punish their bad boys and they don't do it."

MRS. T. J. TAYLOR GETS A DIVORCE.

Daughter of James R. Keene Is Awarded a Decree in Supreme Court.

New York, July 1.—That Judge McCall, in the supreme court, had granted a decree of absolute divorce to Mrs. Jessica Taylor, daughter of James R. Keene, from Talbot J. Taylor, has become known.

No time during the hearing of the action was the name of the woman who was named by Mrs. Taylor as co-respondent made public.

Mrs. Taylor began suit last fall, but it was not until several weeks after the action had been brought that the fact became public.

Mr. Taylor was a member of the brokerage firm of Talbot J. Taylor & Bro., 30 Broad street. During the activity of James R. Keene in Wall street Mr. Keene made his headquarters at the office of his son-in-law, Foxhall Keene, a brother of Mrs. Taylor, was a special member of the brokerage firm for $200,000.

The firm failed in 1903 as the result of the collapse of the Southern Pacific railroad pool. Mr. Taylor was afterward reinstated by the New York Stock Exchange.

He and his wife lived at Talbot House, Cedarhurst, L. I., where their collection of antique beds, tables, and chairs, became known as one of the finest in the world. They separated several months before Mrs. Taylor brought suit for divorce.

Friends of Mr. Keene said he was opposed to the action of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were married in May, 1892.

NEW YORK VOTE IS NOT FOR BRYAN.

Nobody Nominated Until After the Convention Meets, Says Charles F. Murphy.

New York, July 1.—"We will not regard anyone as nominated until after the convention has met. We are going to Denver to deliberate."

This is Charles J. Murphy's final word as to the position of the New York delegation will take at the Democratic national convention. Mr. Murphy will probably start for Denver to-day.

It is pretty generally understood now that Bryan will not get the vote of New York in the convention if he needs it. In other words, so long as there appears to be any chance of preventing his nomination, New York will hold out for some other candidate. But not many of the Tammany men have any idea that Bryan can be beaten in the convention, and they expect to have to swing into line for him.

Mr. Murphy declined to say anything about the dozen or more New York Democrats who are being mentioned as possible nominees for vice-president. He made it quite plain, however, that none of them has the backing of the organization at the present time.

New Hampshire Executive Held on Till Two Men Got Rope Round the Animal's Legs.

Plymouth, N. H., July 1.—Gov. Chas. Floyd of New Hampshire captured a black bear yesterday weighing nearly 100 pounds. The capture was made near the site of the prospective state sanatorium for consumptives at Glencliff. The governor's council and State Engineer Dean of Concord were there to pass upon the site.

Two cubs were sighted, which took to a tree. One got away, but the governor took his coat off and captured the other by covering it with his coat and hanging on for dear life. With the assistance of Editor Caswell of the Warren News, and Mr. Langmaid of Haverhill, a rope was safely secured around the bear's legs.

NEUTRALITY OF U.S. STRICT

Capture of Malcontents Reported at Monterey—350 Men Are Scouring the Mountains in Coahuila.

Washington, July 1.—With troops in readiness on both sides of the international border, the developments in the insurrectionary situation in northern Mexico are being watched with the closest interest from Washington. The official machinery of this government is co-operating to the fullest extent with that of the Diaz government, and from this city the state department, the war department and the department of justice are working together in a common movement for the preservation of neutrality within United States domain. Full instructions for the thorough enforcement of this policy are in effect and any infractions will be quickly met by the proper authorities.

San Antonio, Tex., July 1.—By order of the war department, federal troops of the department of Texas, under command of Brigadier-General A. L. Meyer, have been ordered to proceed without delay to the Mexican border for the purpose of preserving the neutrality law between the United States and Mexico. Practically all of the troops in the department are at or on their way to Leon Springs, where the joint maneuvers are to be held, commencing July 2. The troops left camp yesterday morning.

IMPORTANT CAPTURES REPORTED.

Principal Instigator of the Raids Taken at Vieca.

Monterey, Mex., July 1.—A dispatch to the News from Torreon says: The special correspondent of the News has just returned from a trip to Vieca with the Tenth regiment from Mexico City composed of 350 men under command of Brigadier-General Juan N. Duran. At the station of Galita information was received that a band of about one hundred men had just passed through there, burning the bridge, about a kilometer on the other side of Galita, and cutting the telegraph wire both ways.

In view of this, General Duran ordered part of his force to make a general hunt through the mountains and the remainder to repair the bridge. This was done and after fourteen hours on the way, the train finally reached Vieca.

The force hunting in the mountains captured four men, six horses and eight saddles. The four men stated that the bandits had dispersed and were now scattered. At Vieca the troops made several important arrests, among them being Monacino Estrada, who was the principal instigator of the raids; Benito Ibarra, a merchant of Vieca, who took an active part in the raid and was the chief of the band; and Albino Polendo, a tailor, who was second in command. These men are well known and are identified by all residents of Vieca and the surrounding haciendas as having been with the bandits during the raid.

A CANNON REVOLT.

Organized Effort to Defeat Him For Speaker.

Washington, July 1.—An organized effort is said to have been discovered to defeat "Uncle Joe" Cannon for speaker of the Sixty-first Congress if the Republicans carry the House. He has been tagged as an undesirable reactionary and must be eliminated, so the report goes.

Iowa is expected to lead the revolt against the Illinois congressman. In the first place, Iowa has wanted the speakership honors for years as a tribute to her old veteran, Col. "Pete" Hepburn. In the second place, the state is not in sympathy with some of Cannon's policies.

The action of Republicans in Guthrie county, Iowa, adopting resolutions, calling upon Rep. Walter I. Smith, one of the most influential men in the House, and one who is generally regarded as needing no instructions, to vote against Joseph G. Cannon for speaker, is said to be the first step in the campaign. Other Iowa organizations will follow suit, and it is predicted that many of the congressmen from that state will have the organizations, upon which they depend for election, demanding the defeat of Cannon and the selection of Hepburn to succeed him.

Should Iowa lead off in this matter, most of the northwestern states will follow her, it is calculated. Wisconsin is said to be up in arms against the drastic rules of the speaker that have squeezed the La Follette disciples so hard that they have been able to do nothing more effective than to make a futile protest. Not one solitary crumb of reform have they been able to bring forth to the hungry reformers in the Badger state, and they say it is all because "Uncle Joe" will not allow them to do anything to save the nation.

Some of them have spoken their minds on the floor of the House, while others contented themselves with breaking over party lines when the speaker cracked the whip to carry out some of his plans. Minnesota, Michigan, Nebraska, California and Kansas are counted on to vote for a change in affairs in the House, while scattering representatives, disgruntled by the way things have been run in the House during the last three congresses are classed with those who will vote against the Illinois member.

It is said that organized labor will urge the fight against Cannon. The speaker's opposition to the passage of legislation demanded by the American Federation of Labor and his fight at Chicago against the anti-injunction plank in the Republican platform has whetted the hatred of organized labor for him. If some of the Republican
